

On the first primary day and on the first election day after a new registration is called by the Guilford County Board of Elections, the Chairman of the Guilford County Board of Elections shall turn over to the City Clerk of the City of Greensboro the general election registration book or books of each precinct within the corporate limits of the City of Greensboro, and in the event that any person should appear at a polling place on the city primary or election day above mentioned and contend that such person was registered in such precinct for the primary or general election during the new county-wide registration and the name of such person does not appear on the registration book of the city, such person may, if in fact so registered on the general registration book of the county, obtain from the city clerk a certificate to the effect that such person was properly registered on the general registration book of the county, and it shall be the duty of the registrar of the precinct, in which such person is registered, to place the name of such person on the city registration book. On the day following said city election, the city clerk shall return each of said general election registration books to the Chairman of the Guilford County Board of Elections.

Procedure for voting where registrant was not transferred to city registration books.

All persons registered in the respective precincts within the corporate limits of the City of Greensboro whose names appear in the general election registration books, as shown immediately after the new registration hereinabove mentioned and who are otherwise qualified, shall be eligible to vote in the next city primary and city election to be held in the City of Greensboro after said new registration, and thereafter every person thus registered, whose name appears in the registration books of the city and who is otherwise qualified, shall thereafter be entitled to vote in the city primaries and elections; provided that the city registration books shall be open for new registrations for city primaries or elections, as provided by law.

Eligibility for voting after new registration.

SEC. 2. That following each general election held in Guilford County, except the general election for which a new registration is called as mentioned in Section 1 of this Act, the chairman of the county board of elections shall cause the name of all new electors registered in each precinct to be copied, together with the race, age, and residence of such electors and shall certify such information to the City Clerk of the City of Greensboro. The City Clerk of the City of Greensboro shall cause the names of said electors to be copied in the proper registration books of the city, and all persons thus registered, who are otherwise qualified, shall thereafter be eligible to vote in the city primaries and elections. That all costs incident to the furnishing of names and information by the chairman of the county board of elections shall be borne by the City of Greensboro.

New registrants transferred to city registration books after each general election.

SEC. 3. That all laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this Act are hereby repealed to the extent of such conflict.

Conflicting laws repealed.
